WILSON'S GUILITY; WILL HANG ON DECEMBER 12 MEXICAN ELECTION SUNDAY MAY BRING ORRIS FRANK CASE TO CONTINUE MONDAY

WILSON'S GUILITY TO POWERS ALREADY HAS BEEN SEEN OUT

Such is General Belief in Washington—May Not Be Made Public Unless in Message to Congress

ENGLAND ONLY POWER THAT SEEMS UNFRIENDLY

Diaz Has Been Ordered to Mexico City by Huerta—Situation Tense on Eve of Election in Mexico Sunday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—President Wilson's next act in regard to Mexico and the nations of Europe, particularly Great Britain, will depend upon the results of the election in Mexico. Those who now are predicting that the president will address the various powers warning them that interference in Mexican affairs would be regarded as an act of aggression, are probably not far from the mark. It is a common belief that this note has been sent to the various powers.

Whether this note will be made public by means of a stiff message to Congress depends upon the manner in which it is received. France already has declared its intention to support the Mexican Revolution, Germany is expected to follow suit in some form or other. But Great Britain is the great power to lend aid to Huerta, the point of becoming offensive to the United States, and unless the situation is improved, the president will feel compelled to inform the various powers through the medium of a message to Congress of what he has said to the British government.

This was the view pursued by President Cleveland in the memorable Venezuelan boundary incident.

Wilson's election, however, will not be a large influence in determining the attitude of President Wilson's administration. The president's policy in Mexico was taken into consideration in the election, but the election itself is not likely to have any effect on the policy. It is equally certain that there is a decided belief in Washington that Huerta made the announcement of British aid.

WILSON INDIGNANT.

There is no doubt of the indignation of President Wilson at the British attempt to make a commercial loan to what the president had said to be a great man. It is believed to be the British's reply to the announcement of the United States that the president was warning the other powers to keep out of Mexico. The president is so indignant that he has ordered the State Department to issue a statement to the effect that the United States is not in a position to make a loan to Huerta.

COLLISION ASSURED.

President Wilson's attitude is that the American interest in Mexico is paramount and that the influence of the British is a great danger. The president is so indignant that he has ordered the State Department to issue a statement to the effect that the United States is not in a position to make a loan to Huerta.

Diaz Ordered to Mexico City by Huerta's Note.

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, Oct. 25.—General Diaz today received a "request" from the Mexican government, signed by General Huerta, asking him to return to Mexico City. General Diaz did not decide immediately to comply and no effort was made this morning to force him to accept the invitation.

General Diaz's attitude is that the United States is not in a position to make a loan to Huerta. The president is so indignant that he has ordered the State Department to issue a statement to the effect that the United States is not in a position to make a loan to Huerta.

Signs of Ill-Feeling.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The Mexican situation has become a public matter in London. The British press is full of articles and editorials denouncing the Mexican government and its policies. The British government is expected to take some action in the near future.

JUDGE EMORY SPEER IS DANGEROUSLY ILL AT MOUNT AIRY, GA.

Has Been Delirious the Entire Week and Was Unconscious Thursday and Friday. Lapses Into Fits of Coma

RELATIVES SUMMONED TO JUDGE'S BEDSIDE

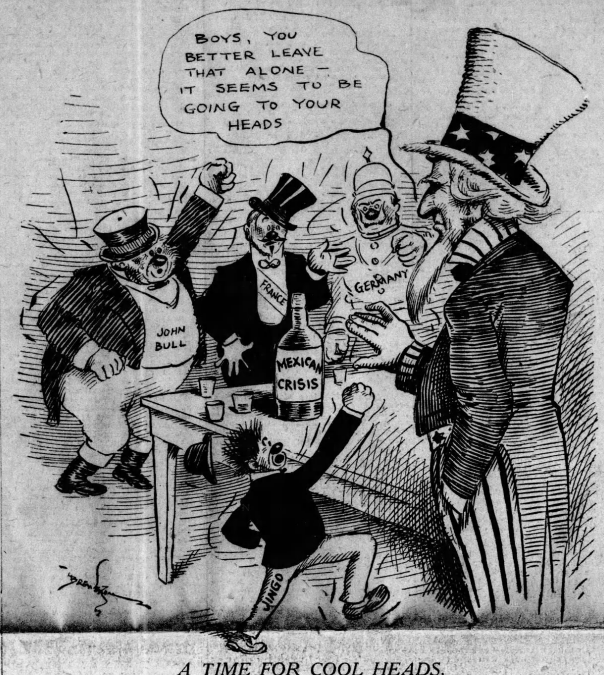

Condition Very Much Complicated—Mental Worry Over Investigation Lessens His Chances of Recovery

MOUNT AIRY, Ga., Oct. 25.—Federal Judge Emory Speer, of the United States court for the south Georgia district, is dangerously ill at his summer home here. For several months Judge Speer has been under constant treatment here and at Highland, N. C.

Since last Monday he has been delirious off and on, and the last two days he has been unconscious. Friday he had a sinking spell that occasioned great alarm, but late last night he rallied and today appears to have taken a turn for the better.

Dr. Harris, of Highland, N. C., is in constant attendance and says that Judge Speer is fighting his own as well as the disease. He is a very old man, and his age is a factor in the case. Judge Speer's condition is very much complicated by mental worry over the investigation of his official conduct.

New Frank Trial Could Not Be Held in Fulton Nor With Roan or Dorsey

When New Trial Is Granted on Grounds of Prejudice, a Change of Venue as to Judge, Jury and Prosecuting Attorney Is Necessary

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Forrest Adair and Edward M. Hafer, of Atlanta, last night were made thirty-third degree Masons following their election on Wednesday. The degree was conferred by the supreme council of the ancient and accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masonry, which has been in session since Monday. The thirty-third is the highest degree in the order.

Adair and Hafer are among the best known and most popular Masons in Georgia. Mr. Adair first became a Mason in 1890, when he joined the N. D. Lodge, in West End. He is a potentate of Yasab Temple, Mystic Shrine, in Atlanta. Mr. Hafer, who is connected with the Insurance Finance, has been prominent in Masonic circles for many years.

Other thirty-third degree Masons in the city are:

John R. Wilkinson, J. C. Greenfield and Ralph David Marx.

"Hello Girls" of Washington Peevish Toward Congressmen

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Representative Cary, of Wisconsin, called at the telephone exchange to check on the list of names of women in the entire force. He was told that the list was in the hands of the telephone company. Cary is conducting a crusade against the "Hello Girls" of the telephone company, who are charged that the telephone company employed "young and inexperienced persons" to handle the lines.

EPISCOPALIANS IN DEADLOCK OVER NEGRO

Closing Hours of Convention Devoted to Discussion of Colored Problem

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Closing hours of the general convention of 1912 of the Protestant Episcopal church found the two houses of the church in a deadlock to break the deadlock over the negro question. They had less than six hours to do so, having agreed to adjourn at 2:30 p. m.

A conference committee consisting of three deputies and three bishops labored throughout the morning to reach an adjustment and save the situation from being left where it was at the close of the 1912 convention.

Fireman Levi Holley was seriously injured and a number of freight cars were derailed when a freight train of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad went through a freight yard near Manchester Friday. The train had been weakened by heavy rain. Holley was caught in the wreckage while attempting to cut cars.

ARNOLD SEVERE IN ATTACK ON DORSEY AND STATE'S CASE

Says Solicitor Dorsey Played to the Galleries With Clapnet and Demagoguery—Compares Spectators to Wolves

"DEFENSE, NOT THE STATE, IS FOR LAW AND ORDER"

Attorney Arnold Continues Saturday Afternoon—Attorney Rosser to Follow—Solicitor's Argument to End Case

With indication that it could not be concluded Saturday, the hearing before Judge L. R. Roan of the motion for a new trial for Leo M. Frank was resumed at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon with Robert R. Arnold, of counsel for the convicted man, again on the floor. Arnold began his speech Friday afternoon, but he continued throughout the morning session, Saturday. It was expected that after his former speech, he would conclude the case with his argument. It probably will be Monday before the case is concluded.

Mr. Arnold's speech Saturday morning was characterized by repeated and plain spoken attacks upon the solicitor, the jury and the state's case. He attacked the jury in a manner toward the case, upon his argument, upon his reference to this and that point and upon the evidence. He referred to parts of the evidence in a manner which he considered to be unworthy of the jury. He declared that the jury was a "clapnet" and "demagoguery." He declared that the jury was a "clapnet" and "demagoguery."

NICK KING'S SEVERE PENALTY

Nick Wilburn Will Be Hanged for Slaying James King in Jones County Last Year—Execution Before Christmas

WIDOW OF VICTIM WILL BE TRIED NEXT MONDAY

State Will Charge That Mrs. Katherine King Conspired With Wilburn to Slay Husband—Widow Breaks Down

GRATTS, Ga., Oct. 25.—"Guiltiness" was the verdict of the jury in the case of Nick Wilburn, the Jones county farmer, who has been on trial here since Thursday for the murder of James King. The verdict was returned shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon. The jury had been out since 10 o'clock. The judge at once sentenced Wilburn to hang on December 12.

The case went to the jury shortly after 10:30 o'clock this morning, when the jury was called into the courtroom. The case was heard by Judge L. R. Roan, who presided over the trial. The jury was composed of twelve men. The case was heard in the courtroom of the Georgia State Prison.

MRS. HANSON SUES FOR PAYMENTS OF ALIMONY

More Litigation Over Famous Hanson Will Bobs Up in Fulton Courts

Litigation over the famous Hanson suit, which already occupies a large share of the court records, cropped out at another angle Saturday morning when Mrs. Cora Lee Hanson, Major J. P. Hanson's former wife, entered suit against John D. Little and W. L. Hanson, executors of the will of Major Hanson, for the payment of increased alimony, which Mrs. Hanson alleges the executors have refused to pay her.

The suit also asks for the appointment of a trustee in the state of Georgia to take possession of some bonds which she says Major Hanson agreed to hold as security for the payment of alimony agreed on at the separation of Major and Mrs. Hanson.

Mrs. Hanson alleges that at the time of her separation from Major Hanson he agreed to give her during her life time his home on Georgia avenue, in Macon, together with all its furnishings, except the bed room of Major Hanson, and his personal belongings therein, and several other pieces of personal property. In item one of his will he provided for the sale of the house after his death, but in item eight says the house should be sold without her consent, and that she might relinquish her right to it and receive in lieu thereof an annual payment of $2,500.

FISHER TO BE TAKEN TO DALTON ON SUNDAY

Man Who Made Charges in Phagan Case Must Answer Murder Charge in Whitfield

DALTON, Ga., Oct. 25.—No clash between officials will result when Deputy Sheriff Thompson leaves Sunday for Atlanta to secure Ira Fisher, indicted for the murder of a woman, who is being held in the county jail here. Sheriff Glenn has received assurances from officials in Atlanta that Fisher will be turned over to the county at once, as the charges against him in Atlanta can be made until after the murder case is disposed of.

Mr. Fisher, a law firm of Rome, have been retained to defend Fisher, they were yesterday looking into the matter. The case is set for hearing in the regular January term of Whitfield superior court.

BARNESVILLE BOY HURT IN PONCE FOOTBALL GAME

C. Groines Carried to Hospital; It Is Feared Injuries Are Serious

C. Groines, a Barnesville youth, playing smart on Gordon Institute football team against Hiverside Military Academy at Ponce de Leon park Saturday, was injured in the game about 10 o'clock and the extent of his injuries is not yet known. It is feared that a silver plate in the boy's skull was displaced somehow in the play.

His injury at first was thought to be slight, and he was carried, unconscious, in an automobile to the Macon hotel on Pryor street, where a physician called to attend him there looked on the case more seriously and ordered that he be moved to the Davis-Fischer sanitarium. He was carried to the sanitarium in a motor car.

Strong effort is being made by the defense lawyers in the new trial motion hearing before Judge Roan to back up its charges of prejudice at the trial of Frank for the murder of Mary Phagan; and it is being combated with equal determination by the state's counsel.

Taking up the notes found on Mary Phagan's body, Mr. Arnold declared that in them the murder showed unconsciously how he had disposed of the body when he attempted to make it appear that Mary said "I pushed me down the hole." As evidence that the notes were written by a negro, he declared, it took Lee, another negro, to interpret words "night watch" as meaning night watchman.

Georgia-Virginia Game to Become Annual Football Event

Annual Game Favored Between Georgia and Virginia Grid Teams

Success of Today's Game Assured, and It Promises to Be Starting Point of Schedule Providing for a Big Clash Each Year Between Football Eleven, Representing the South's Two Most Representative Universities—Teams Are in Fine Fettle for the Fray and Will Fight Every Inch of the Ground

CAPT. CARTER, VIRGINIA.
"Our team arrived in Atlanta in very good shape and we are delighted with our splendid reception. Georgia alumni and others. We had a good workout Friday afternoon. Of course the weather was not ideal, but we expect the Georgia boys to give us a real fight for our money."

CAPT. MCKWORTH, GEORGIA.
"Our team is not in the very best of shape on account of an epidemic of colds. But I think that won't deter us so much you'd notice it. We won't work out before the game. The Virginia team, on the other hand, we've got some pretty fair players in our line-up, and they know how to play football. We may not win, but Virginia at least will know they've played a game."

The consensus of opinion among Georgia and Virginia men is that the clash today at Ponce de Leon between the football teams of these representative southern universities will pave the way for an annual Georgia-Virginia game. The idea began to be discussed as soon as the Virginia team arrived in the city Friday afternoon, and the more it was discussed the more favorably was it received.

For several days all signs have pointed to the game today being a big event, and the atmosphere of excitement and enthusiasm, and the college men felt this in the atmosphere immediately and were stimulated to thoughts of making a great annual football event of the Georgia-Virginia game.

The Virginia outfit, something like thirty strong, headed by Coach Warner, arrived shortly after noon, and went at once to the Ansley hotel, where they had lunch in a private dining room on the second floor.

They were met by the train by a committee of Virginia alumni who had made all arrangements for their entertainment while in the city. Immediately after lunch they were taken in automobiles to the Piedmont Driving Club, where they had a strenuous workout and secret signal practice on the field in Piedmont park.

Returning from the field, they were met at the club house by the alumni and tendered a splendid dinner, which was concluded early so that the members of the team could get their full night's sleep, which they did with a vim.

The Georgia team arrived later than expected, the train being scheduled for 8:30 but did not roll in till nearly 10 o'clock. The team went to the Georgia Terrace and were put to bed immediately after a light supper.

No workout will be undertaken by the Georgia team in advance of the game. They simply looked over the field during the day, resting and taking it easy, and will leave for Ponce de Leon in an hour in advance of the game.

Both the Ansley and the Georgia Terrace hotels decorated in honor of the teams with college colors. Long streamers of orange and blue were strung above the clock in the Ansley lobby, while red and black streamers, together with team blankets, are conspicuously displayed over the Georgia Terrace entrance and in the lobby.

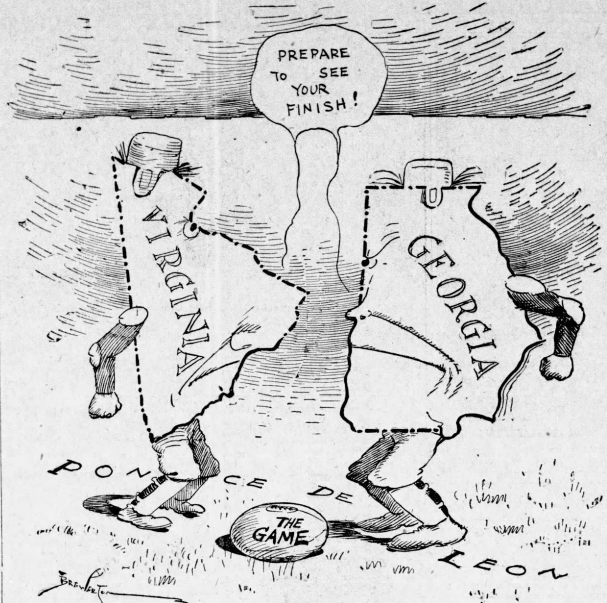

The Virginia team, averaging 175 1-2 pounds, are in good shape for the game, and of course they expect to win, though they are not without a few weak links.

Coach Cunningham says the Georgia team is the best of condition, owing to an epidemic of colds, but they are not without a few weak links. It matters little that they will go into the game determined to give the Old Dominion a hard battle.

A special section of seats has been reserved at Ponce de Leon for Virginia people, and in good shape for the game, and will be draped in orange and blue.

Sometime like 200 Georgia students arrived in the city Saturday, fully equipped with noise-making apparatus and full of enthusiasm.

The working odds are 2 to 1 on Virginia, with no lack of money being put up.

Commodores Are Hopeful of Downing Michiganders—Day Is Fair, Field Heavy

(By Associated Press.)
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 25.—All in readiness for the gridiron struggle this afternoon between Vanderbilt and the University of Michigan, Day broke fair and cool with stiff breezes from the northwest blowing. The field, however, has been thoroughly soaked and its condition will be only fair for fast work.

This is Vanderbilt's sixth line-up against Michigan and her supporters are manifesting a degree of hopefulness not heretofore experienced. All past the line-up on a hard fought game but a Michigan victory, Michigan averages 175 1-2 pounds, while Vanderbilt averages 175 1-2 pounds.

The officials are: H. H. Hackett, of the Army, umpire; Ralph Hoagland, of Princeton, referee; and Willie Houston, of Michigan, head line-man.

The line-up follows:

Eastern Grids Soaked by Rain

Tigers Play Dartmouth's Strong Eleven—Indians Battle With Pennsy

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Many of the eastern grids were soaked today with a rain that had continued for nearly twenty-four hours, making it appear certain that the wet fields and the slippery ball might figure largely as a factor in today's play. The Washington forecast of weather for eastern territory was for continued rain today or at least some very weather that the already soaked grids would not be dried out by game time. In the rain yesterday most of the teams had practice in handling the ball under the same conditions existing today.

The Princeton-Dartmouth and Pennsylvania-Carleton games attracted the most attention in the east and reports from both Philadelphia and Princeton indicated that muddy fields would make close struggles all the more uncertain.

The Yale and Harvard grids were not soaked yesterday, but rain was forecast in New England today. At Harvard the game with Penn State was looked upon as but a stiff midweek practice, but at Yale there was considerable uncertainty over the contest with Washington and Jefferson, team, arising from the good showing which the latter made a week ago against Penn State.

Today's football games will demonstrate the real caliber of Princeton, Dartmouth and Pennsylvania. Victories, if such be their portion, will have been well earned, and their ranking status will count for a few weeks at least.

The southern section of the eastern division of varsity football is to be preeminent since Dartmouth plays Princeton at Princeton and the Carolina Indians invade Franklin field, Philadelphia, to meet the University of Pennsylvania team.

Dartmouth goes to Princeton with a strong, it rather light competition and the best record made by any eastern team to date, although the eleven has shown nothing exceptional in either goal or field goal kicking.

Princeton, in an equal number of games, has fallen 25 points short of Dartmouth's record, and to date the Princeton team appears to be more or less of a two-man scoring machine, since Strick and H. Baker have collected sixty-six out of the 105 points scored by touchdowns.

Germany Preparing For Olympic Games
BERLIN, Oct. 25.—A campaign to arouse interest in the Olympic games to be held here in 1916 was inaugurated in a lecture by Carl Diem, general secretary of the Olympic games. Herr Diem told of the recent trip to the United States of the athletic commission of which he is a member. He praised the athletic conditions in the United States and said they were an example for Germany. James W. Gardner, the American ambassador, was the guest of honor.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR PIGS IN FANS

A Football Coach Explains How To Follow What's Happening

BY JAMES MOORE.

If you see one busy arm reach forth in the heat of the fray, and the captain, or some other player, look out for something big. First, you will see a new player run on the field, next you will see the ball carried half the distance to the opposing team's goal line, and then the sweating player put the ball of the game for the show of barbarism that is a championship.

If the team kicking off has to kick off twice before the game is in play it means that the kicking team were off.

If you see a man on the offense hold a player off to the side, you will know that the referee will penalize the man for holding yards for that man's favorable disposition—if the referee sees him.

If any player seems to be too anxious to get into the play and therefore starts before the rest of the players, you will know that his team will have to pay the penalty for his impetuous nature to the extent of five yards of hard-earned ground.

Sewanee Tigers Journey Westward to Lone Star State for Clash With Texas Longhorns in Dallas, Which Will Exemplify Nicknames of the Two Teams—Yost Leads His Pack of Michigan Wolverines, Hungry for Blood, Into Classic Nashville to Attack Vanderbilt Commodores in Sixth Great Annual Battle

Georgia-Virginia, at Atlanta.
Tech-Florida, at Jacksonville.
Vanderbilt-Michigan, at Nashville.
Sewanee-Texas, at Dallas.
Alabama-Mississippi A. and M., at Birmingham.
Alabama-Tulane, at New Orleans.
Mercer-Citadel, at Macon.

Outside of the Georgia-Virginia and the Tech-Florida games, which share the spotlight of local interest today, three other gridiron battles of more than passing importance will be staged. Namely, the game between Vanderbilt and Michigan, the game between Auburn and Mississippi A. and M., and the game between Sewanee and Texas.

These games except for the one at Birmingham, will have no bearing on the S. L. A. championship. Their importance consists in the fact that they are inter-sectional clashes, and the inter-sectional rivalry between them at times runs high.

VANDY-MICHIGAN CLASH.
First and foremost is the clash between Vandy-Michigan at Nashville. Inter-sectional rivalry here is intense. The Commodores have been against the Wolverines five times and have not been returned victor or gained a single tie. On one occasion, in 1911, Vandy secured a virtual tie, the score being 8-8, a missed goal losing a tie decision. No other game has been so close. The largest score was in 1908, when Michigan ran up 28 points to a zero.

This is Michigan's second trip south, first being in 1906. In that game neither side scored a touchdown. Big Ted Schultz, probably the greatest center for the game has ever seen, held Vandy's strong line single handed twice when near a goal, while one of the backfield men booted a place kick. In those days the place kick counted four points. Michigan had a wonderful team then, but this year's eleven is considerably below Michigan's strength. Last Sunday they went down before the strong Michigan Agricultural college team, which has always given the Wolverines a close battle.

Despite "boar" stories, which are so dreadful as to be ridiculous, Vanderbilt has a strong team. A comparison between the teams that here the Vanderbilt colors in 1908 and 1911 seems to discredit these gloomy reports. Stein Stone was center of 1908 aggregation. Buddy Morgan is center of this year's team. Morgan is only a few points behind the great Schultz, while Stone was not in it with the big man. This is only one instance.

SEWANEE AND TEXAS.
Sewanee and Texas furnish another inter-sectional clash. The Lone Star eleven usually captures every gridiron honor available in the southwest. This clash will present a game southern team fighting against a big heavy western eleven, outweighing Sewanee probably twenty pounds to the man. Sewanee's only hope is speed, of which they are said to possess as much as an Olympic relay team. On the other hand, the Texans are said to be very slow, but extremely large. Both teams ought to score in this game, the present rules giving the Tigers' speed a chance to aid them greatly.

Sewanee will gain glory if they defeat the Texans, but here is a point that ought to teach a lesson. If they win they will bring back a badly crippled eleven. They took the trip two years ago and suffered tremendously from resulting injuries.

Auburn and Mississippi A. and M. are big teams, beefy, fighting, and with plenty of ability on either season form
